

Normal Like You, A Lonely Little Boy Named Sve

All your worries speak to me
but they're nonconvincing.
All your troubles expect me
to be the one to sympathize.
All that I can do is be understanding.
Sometimes my eyes won't let me see just what you want me to.
Theres nothing I can do.

Theres something about me
it isnt what you had in mind
Theres something about me ...
Theres something about me
it isnt what you had in mind
Theres something about me ...

All we have in life are worries.
is it so bad to see them gone?
Just admit, at times you wonder when can i start having fun?
can i start having fun?

Theres something about me
it isnt what you had in mind
Theres something about me ...
Theres something about me
it isnt what you had in mind
Theres something about me ...

*solo*

Theres something about me
it isnt what you had in mind
Theres something about me ...
Theres something about me
it isnt what you had in mind
Theres something about me ...
