

Normal Like You, Picture Frames

Shit happens,
i can't believe the irony,
it slapped me in the face,
it kills all my expectations...
and I know,
the unlikely is likely to happen,
good or bad, you'll never know,
Let's just say I've done some growing this year,
More than i can handle,
And i'll never forget this year....

Now your gone,
sooo far away....
Now your gone,
nothings the same...

I thought you'd better reminisce the times we've had,
when laughter was familiar,
tragedy has stripped from us the you we had,
much too soon,
I cannot keep growing this year, without you,
I'll never forget this year....

Now your gone,
so far away....
Now your gone,
nothings the same....

Now your gone,
and nothings left to fill the gaps of doors you've left wide open...
now your gone...
and all thats left are picture frames and memories of you...

now your gone!
so far away....
now your gone...
nothings the same....
