

Norther, Betrayed (P.Lindroos)

One morning I woke up, realised I've been betrayed shadows of yesterday fill my mind as I drift away no matter what's ahead.
I'll face the death I'll find my hate this twisted fate I have shall lead the way and make you brake

One night I went to die, deceived again,
I was ready to fly thousand blades waiting for me, so fuck you all,
I was meant to be free
my hate was cheating me, is this the path,
I cannot see
too many bridges burned, can't you see I am the traitor

--chorus--
would you die for my hate now burning in my eyes,
burning me inside.
I guess I now have to cut you
while lying by your side, I'm out of my mind
--chorus--

solo: #P.Lindroos#

this time the conspiracy, in your mind went out of line no more forgiving,
close your eyes
I'll help you to die in the night I am beside you, weird voices in my mind you're asleep and I love you, but more than thousand times I cut you

--chorus--
burning in my eyes,
I guess I now have to cut you
while lying by your side,
I'm out of my mind!
--chorus--

that night I took your life and now this traitor dies and so he died...
