

Norther, Released

I have come to a point where there is no return I'm losing my mind and my heart will burn
This fear inside is eating me alive again
Left alone I'm not gonna stay
No fucking way

--chorus--

-----

When I cut myself and laugh at you all
I am the released one now my blood streams on the floor
There was nothing left anymore
when I reached for you
You didn't care even then now the bells are calling for you

-----

--chorus--

I've been walking in the shadows already for so long Don't know the difference between what is right or wrong
There is nothing to be done anymore to prevent my demise
The rope is around my neck meaning that I'm gonna die

--chorus--

When I hang myself
and laugh at you all
I am the released one
and my spirit walks out of the door
There was nothing left anymore
when I reached for you
You didn't care even then
now the bells are calling for you

--chorus--
