Norther, Victorius One

Again I see the shadows crawling in my mind I try to run but I can't hide This endless war inside me has torn my heart apart My mind's vengeance will be so sweet

AGAIN I'M ON THE RUN TO KILL THE PAIN INSIDE ME I AM THE ONE WHO CRIES IN THE DARK ALONE HEARING VOICES, I HAVE TO KILL THOSE EVIL MEMORIES YOU DON'T KNOW, BUT YOU HAVE TO DIE BESIDE ME

The night is here and I'm close to you, there is a question for you to answer Will you be with me forever or will you die, just for me

I'm free 'cause you chose to die but it won't change a thing The fire in our souls has died away My heart is evil and I have this lust to kill you

We are together in death and so it shall be With my heart I see the flames again they are there for me With my evil memories I burn in misery

I know there's a sorrow around you but time will heal I told you a lie that I could never die

The night is here and I'm close to you, there's a question for you to answer Will you be with me forever or will you die, just for me
