

NorthKid, Someone

Hey, how you been?
Did you ever go to Berlin?
Are you falling asleep now
Soon as you lay your head down?
Hey, how's your dad?
Did you save up enough cash
To buy the car that you wanted?
Do you get home exhausted?

'Cause we got
Caught in the deep end
Our hearts
Were too hurt for healing
We had
So many reasons why

Do ya do ya do ya ever dream of us?
Do ya do ya do ya ever think it's such a shame?
I was someone you loved
Now I'm someone you hate
And when your head feels stuck
Do ya do ya wish that I was there to heal the pain?
I was someone you loved
Now I'm someone you hate

Where you at?
Did it all work out how you planned?
Did you find that someone who
Loves you like I couldn't do?

'Cause we got
Caught in the deep end
Our hearts
Were too hurt for healing
Oh love
Everything heals with time

Do ya do ya do ya ever dream of us?
Do ya do ya do ya ever think it's such a shame?
I was someone you loved
Now I'm someone you hate
And when your head feels stuck
Do ya do ya wish that I was there to heal the pain?
I was someone you loved
Now I'm someone you hate

If I walked by walked by
Would you wave hi, wave hi
And reminisce with me?
Would you even recognize me now?
If I walked by walked by
Would you think twice?
Would you care at all?

Do ya do ya do ya ever dream of us?
Do ya do ya do ya ever think it's such a shame?
I was someone you loved
Now I'm someone you hate
And when your head feels stuck
Do ya do ya wish that I was there to heal the pain?
I was someone you loved
Now I'm someone you hate

Do you do you do you

Do you do you do you
I was someone you loved
Now I'm someone you hate
