

Not without grace, Fly

Never thought it would be this way
Must be something to do with you
Now I'm stranded inside this house
With walls of glass you see right through
And I don't dare to open my eyes
Everytime I do I fall
Sometimes all I can do is to run away
But it always comes back to me
Back to me wherever I go
Somehow everything I see turns away from me
And it always comes back to me
Back to me whenever I fall
Finding out was as hard as I thought
Now I'm walking towards something new
This is me grasping for something I can not reach
You wouldn't believe if I told you the truth
And I don't dare to open my eyes
Everytime I do I fall
Sometimes all I can do is to run away
But it always comes back to me
Back to me wherever I go
Somehow everything I see turns away from me
And it always comes back to me
Back to me whenever I fall
Lost in myself
Couldn't seem to understand what you made me
Now I know why
I can not stand here by you
So fly
Away into the night
Sometimes all I can do is to run away
But it always comes back to me
