

Not without grace, Joshua

I got a lot to say but nothing's true
I'm only true to what's outside the rules
You think you have it all I disagree
I see greed I suffer silently
Living among is living on your own
I'm running from a society of wrongs
So let it be I have no fear
I'm better off alone so set me free
I'm falling free
The one thing that I need is honesty
Why would I need humanity like we
So I will disappear til I feel free
The world and me, that's all that's gonna be
I think I see there's no fear
I'm better off alone so set me free
I'm falling free
So let me feel I'm walking I'm walking
To honesty
So let me feel I'm walking I'm walking
Will disappear
Somethings aren't meant to be for me
I'm a mystery and that's what makes me free
