

Notarthomas Jamie, Goodbye

Good-bye Good-bye. Go ahead and cry
If you're not happy then neither am I
Good-bye Good-bye. Go ahead and cry
No matter what I do you're never satisfied
If you tried your best and you gave it all you got
And you thought things were going pretty good
And she tells you that they rot
Well I tried my best. I gave it all I had
I thought things were going great, but she said...
I told her...
Good-bye Good-bye. Go ahead and cry
If you're not happy then neither am I
Good-bye Good-bye. Go ahead and cry
No matter what I do you're never satisfied
I gave you time, I gave you love
I gave you things you were without
When you told me up was down,
I gave you the benefit of the doubt.
Excuse me if I'm wrong
Take this with a grain of salt
But why am I always the one to apologize
When we both know it's your fault?
Good-bye Good-bye. Go ahead and cry
If you're not happy then neither am I
Good-bye Good-bye. Go ahead and cry
No matter what I do you're never satisfied
We argue back and forth, it's always the same
You win again baby, I'm tired of this game
Though it might be your court, it's my ball
You say Satan's got ahold of me, 'n soon I'm gonna fall
But even if you're right, it's my call
And I'm willing to bet I'm really not such a bad guy after all
Good-bye Good-bye. Go ahead and cry
If you're not happy then neither am I
Good-bye Good-bye. Go ahead and cry
No matter what I do you're never satisfied
Now there's no direction left to turn
There's only one door that I have yet to walk through
And behind that door is another world
That does not revolve around you
Good-bye Good-bye. Go ahead and cry
If you're not happy then neither am I
Good-bye Good-bye. Go ahead and cry
No matter what I do you're never satisfied
You're not happy, so neither am I
And it's me that you're not happy with
And I'm sick of asking why
Good-bye Good-bye Good-bye
