

NOTD, HRVY, I Miss Myself

we need a conversation i'm ruunning outta [patience patience, you see you never make an effort I;m sick of always telling you what I need so tired of chasing you it's everything I gotta do the city is a jungle
killing all the nice and humble in me

I miss myself, the one I was before I found ya who am I now /2x
when I'm without ya
/2x

when I'm without ya /3x and if I'm being honest I lost myself in my devotion to you don't mean that I don't want ya

don't mean that I don't want ya I mean I gotta find myself whithout you put my life on pause to be all you want
the city is a jungle

who am I now /2x
when I'm without ya
/2x

and they say two hearts make one heart when both are whole but two hearts make no heart if one of 'em broke put my life on pasue to be anything you want
the city is a jungle

who am I now /2x
/2x

when I'm without ya /6x
