

Nothing But Thieves, Is Everybody Going Crazy?

I saw you down in nightbourhood and I understood spiritual hangover that I can't shake it's getting more then I can take and in this restless disfigured place we've only got each other

I just wanna go blur the line and leave our afflictions behind the sky is coming down

I know it's strange
but heaven's a mindset anyway

everybody's going crazy
can't get through to you lately
we're so hopelessly faded is anyone else feeling lonely?
it just can't be me only
losing our cool so slowly it would feel so good to steal some time
make you mine

you ever through we're not ourselves?
cuz I know it well
I am ready now to have a change of skin the day doesn't set the world just spins and in this wounded sinister place
