

Nothing To Lose, Smiles And Cries

we've both been through a lot dont get me wrong and i bet u never thought you'd be hearing this song now i wanna know if im only dreaming if i am dont wake me up cause i'd rather be sleeping thinking

(chorus)

people will say dont make it mess up and every1 thinks that i will mess this up keep on smiling at me 2night things turned around we both felt sumthing right i know we dont think the same now that we're older time has brought a change and now for what seems better i know that years ago you wouldn't talk to me i look at you and kno who ever held's you's lucky

(chorus)

writing down jus how im feeling finding out how much u care
i can read inside your stare wondering wuts gonna happen
i wanan take you everywhere im searchin for what i can see words cant explain feelings inside of me im giving it all up for you sing you this song so you know that its true writing down jus how im feeling
