

Nothing To Lose, The Missing Pieces

I'll say it again just one more time first listen then make up your mind

so long
if you think I'll wait for you nothing personal but don't take all day since you've been here
I'm sure that I'll wait for you
I still know that it's the wrong kind of way cause there's something wrong without you and to get ahead I need you it's not easy living without you come back again

don't want to hear that line
"we're better off as friends"; you're coming along just like before this time for you it's not much more

if you think I'll wait for you
since you've been here
I'm sure that I'll wait for you

cause there's something wrong without you
don't want to hear that line
"we're better off as friends";

I will pull those tears right from your eyes and make sure that the roots will die this drama is tearing us down this taste I get from just your lips makes everything seem meaningless I promise I want you around you're not around
