

Nothingface, American Love

I push myself in first
I'm here to wait for all the killing
I think I'm just in time
Geewhiz I'd love to die like that
Everything, everyone
Behind our face we love to hate
We all just want to see
To see you get kicked in the face
It's nice to see
See right through you
But I..will not..be ex-or-cised

It's nice..that you..believe
Corrupt your eyes to cause those scenes
It's nice..that you..conceived
The way we trust

It's ok we all believed them...
(We all just shook our heads)
It's ok we all believed them...
(Battered and so misled)

It's nice..that you..believe
Corrupt your eyes to cause those scenes
It's nice..that you..conceived
The way we trust

I push myself in first
I'm here to wait for all the killing
I think I'm just in time
Geewhiz I'd love to die like that
Everything, everyone
Behind our face we love to hate
We all just want to see
To see you get kicked in the face

It's ok we believed them...
(We all just shook our heads)
It's ok we all believed them...
(Battered and so misled)

I've lost some time
I found out this is..real
I'm sad but I'm not that sure
Then I realized it's just you
The first time...
The first time...

Everything, everyone
Behind our face we love to hate
We all just want to see
To see you get kicked in the face
It's nice..to see
See right through you
But I..will not..be ex-or-cised

It's ok we all believed them
(We all just shook our heads)
It's ok we all believed them
(Battered and misled)
