Nothingface, Bleeder

It's not ending What's it to you Isolate me Feel unsure Tired of waiting Please let me go I'll never forget you Just let me go Me eyes see everything I want them too I just don't want them to see you Just the way that you are It's so cold Safely totured Hiding the scars No one knows it Just you and I Lift your dress up I said I'd go slow I'll never stop this Until I reload My eyes see everything I want them to I just don't want them to see you Just the way that you are It's so cold Sometimes there's no control Shut up 'til I'm done talking It seems so insincere It seems you got it all You got it all My eyes see everything I want them to I just don't want them to see you Just the way that you are It's so cold You got it all
