

Nothingface, Everlasting Godstopper

Today, I set aside a friend,
But still I wait for dead
Before this takes time from me
We can all just see
Beginning
The first time that we're inside
You, you told me nothing
So I know you lied
We know it
It's the same, but it okay, in your eyes
Now, outside these lines
Through your own eyes never lie
Why can't you believe
I want all back, all back
Still you showed your sleeves
I want it all back, all back
You know its coming
I caught you dick in hand
Please don't say nothing, you'll box yourself again
It's nice just to be right again
But you sacraficed a friend, you're the only shit I know
You knew it
Its all right, change your own words
Tell the truth inside me
Never seen
It's the same but it's okay, in your eyes
Now, outside these lines
Through your own eyes never lie
There's some that you've wronged
There's some that you set free
There's some that deny
There's some that fall on their knees
Today, I set aside a friend
But still i wait for dead
Before this takes time from me
We can all just see
Beginning
The first time that we're inside
You, you told me nothing
So I know you lied
We know it
I know I'll be, alone again
I know I'll be, alone again
I know I'll be, alone again
