

Noumena, Slain Memories

He came by the shore
From dark, so sick so frail
In gloom of his eyes
The fear he couldn't restrain

I'll try to capture the feeling
I'm feeling inside
I won't hide it
I'm second to none

I want to enter my pain
My slain memories
My final atrocity
I'm second to none

As time has passed by
No trust, no place for relief
I will adopt my fate
My desire was more than this

Falling into infinity
This is, who I, this is who I am

Washed by the waves
Embraced by the infinite sea
Nevermore, the darkest deed
For the one once beside me
