Take me home Send me on a ship My life leaves me Homesick Home I forget myself Home I can't let myself Let myself go Miss my baby bones I know the way they felt I've been aching For mother's milk Home I forget myself Home I can't let myself Let myself go And I wanna be only bereft And I wanna get smartest in my heart Somebody to cut what I can't chew Fill me up like it fills the room Got my big girl Body and shoes Sometimes lately Its hard to choose Home (can't let myself go) I forget myself Home (can't let myself go) I can't let myself go Home (can't let myself go) I forget myself Home (can't let myself go) I can't let myself let myself let myself let myself let myself go.
