

Novalis Deux, Put On Your Shoes

Step into the mine
Take your lantern
Close your eyes
To take a deep breath

And at your side
The other slaves
Without faces
And nameless

Put on your shoes
Put on
Put on your shoes

It's cold, it's dark
It's your last day

With a heavy punch
Against the rock
Broken granite
The handle crushes

Put on your shoes
Put on
Put on your shoes

It's cold, it's dark
It's your last day
