

Novastar, Carelessly Dating

it is not the waiting summer sun is fading but I am not complaining is it any wonder carelessly lying turns me on and I see our love it's fading I can't really tell you where it's gone we should not be here at all, I'm sorry all she wants is a piece of fame and glory and you know what it means to me so don't worry

I'm feeling my own sickness and betrayal sick and tired as always mainly trying not to let it fail well, it got me nowhere now I'm healing every wound as it's unvailed

you know what it means to me so don't worry
