

Novastar, Lost Out Over You

how much leeway should I give
- when my heart says no -
to answer to a wish
that will only grow

is your love that lazy
is love that lazy

lost out over you

we have other fish to fry our night light's low
we rise to our full height still our bed feels cold

lost out over you

think about it
I don't know what to think about it just think about it I don't know what to think

lost out over you
lost out over you
