

Novi Ierusalim, Brand New Day

A brand new day will come
Another day will come
Caressing like a summer breeze
Your pain will melt away
And the world of fading grey
Springs up so beautifully
On that brand new day

With a ray of mid-day light
An angel will touch your eyes
And you're gonna see
And you're gonna see

If you lift up your eyes
Lightning is in the skies
Heaven and earth are joined as one
The man who was on the cross
Breaking the chains of blame
He on that brand new day arose

Live a brand new day
Open up your door
You'll find love that never ends
Step across the bridge
You can see it for yourself
How Jesus holds your dreams
Within His loving hands
