

Novi Ierusalim, Rainbow

We all were born
Still color-blind to friendship
Into this world
We came without a shame
Our eyes were closed
To bias preconceptions
Our hearts were open
We saw with love

And then it came
The hate and closed our hearts in darkness
And everywhere
We judged without regress
Without a care
We tore apart the rainbow
Our eyes they opened
But we could not see

When will we be
The colors of
This living rainbow
When will we see
See with love
I wanna see with love
