

Novi Ierusalim, The City Of Gold

Take a look at the skies
In the city of gold
Darkness won't arise
There are no tears of pain
There's no everyday haste
No more striving or strain

Restless sun never sets
Days won't come to an end
Only brighter it gets
No one guards city walls
Only souls that are pure
Enter into those courts

I can show you the way
To the city above
Through a heart
Which is filled with God's love

Only souls that are pure
Enter into those courts
Into heaven there's no other roads

All the wealth is left behind
To the city of gold
People come as they are
The light of God
Shines so bright
Upon those who will
Always be treasured and loved

Life is like a vapor
It will end one day
There is a road of gold
That leads the way
