

Novika, Who Wouldn't

Who wouldn't want to
Stop for a minute, now?
Overcome the fear and ask
For a chance to go back in time
/2x

Morning kisses, night's on fire
Never coming back
Strong ambition, gold achievement bound to crash and fall
Hold me honey, I'm too weak to Fight the future clock
Let me lie down here in quiet
Let an hour go

Grown up kids
The same mistakes in generation shift
There's no point to and it's too late
Gave dark the wedding rings
Hold me honey really close so I can hardly breath
Let me wait for a better moment
No one wait for me

Who wouldn't want to
Stop for a minute, now?
Overcome the fear and ask
For a chance to go back in time
