

NRG, Look At Me

Everybody halo halo halo Everybody Everybody

Everybody halo halo halo Everybody Everybody

(Rap) Just one two three for the lie

Myself going to you is just another freakin lie

Saying just one drink is a lie

I smoothly go to you and try to hide my black hands

I want to spend the night with you

But I dont want to feel these kinds of feelings...

A genuine gentleman comes up to you

And he wants to spend this burning night with you

If you see me now, come to me

If you felt my piercing glance, come to me

Stop going back and forth and come to me

A momentary decesion may change your life

This decesion may alter your whole night

Enjoy a night with me You're just in the night for me

Look at me Looka t me, remember me for that short moment in your heart

Same as me In the same daydreams as me, take my sexy self

Everybody halo halo halo Everybody Everybody

Everybody halo halo halo Everybody Everybody

(Rap)

Our "booking" at the night club was so shocking

Our meet was fantastic, Im getting ready for the making of tonight

If it wont work through being nice, I will come out strong

I want a selfish love. if you fill my heart up, stop burning me inside

Its not easy breaking up, separating, eating and living

Its hard to love, to confirm and to die eternally

A messed up love will have no answers

We will all kill each other with no where to go

I know I will regret it but you're just in the night for me

Look at me Looka t me, remember me for that short moment in your heart

Same as me In the same daydreams as me, take my sexy self

I've had you on my mind and I finally found you among many people

Now I will spend tonight on top of you

Look at me Looka t me, remember me for that short moment in your heart

Same as me In the same daydreams as me, take my sexy self

Everybody halo halo halo Everybody Everybody

Everybody halo halo halo Everybody Everybody

Look at me Looka t me, remember me for that short moment in your heart

Same as me In the same daydreams as me, take my sexy self

"booking" is when you go to a nightclub and if you're good looking enough, the waiter/waitresses drag you to other tables and hook you up with othe
