

NRG, Love

When I look at the gaze that you look at me with
My heart always seems to beat faster.
When I'm with you I want to feel you.
Now open your heart. I want to give you my love that is constantly growing.
Whether I think with my eyes shut or closed..
If I only had you...
Feel my love. Now come to my side.
I always longed for you, and now I want to be with you.
Now not as friends but as lovers.
Be with me.. for me.
My love I'm going to love you forever.
I want to run into your heart.
I want to hug you from behind.
That small playground where we played on the swings,
With a kiss that dampens the space between us, I couldn't say the words I love you at all.
Stupid, get some strenght, tell her.
You whisper to me. My love can't do anything. My lover.
With you, even if I close my eyes forever in your embrace..
When I'm holding you..
I can feel your love. I go to your side.
In a life I can't move in I'm joyed since I can be happy.
Everything in this world is dyed with my love.
You in my arms and I in yours.
Forever I'm gonna be with you.
Feel my love. Now come to my side.
I always longed for you, and now I want to be with you.
Now not as friends but as lovers.
Be with me.. for me.
My love I'm going to love you forever.
