

NRG, Love Is Like That

No; I was deeply troubled
No; I dont love you anymore
No; as I erase my loving expression
No matter how often you ask Ill give the same answer
No; my heart aches too
No; but still, please love
No; there isnt another girl
But please now leave my side
Love is like that; goodbyes are like that Even if you dont call one day the end has arrived
Your heart is like that
If it gets a little tough it changes in a moment
No; I dont want to forget
No; Ill miss you a lot
No; even if you live in futile expectations
I wont return to you
Love and goodbyes
Bring you so much pain, so why do you keep holding me?
Youre so weak, youre so afraid
How are you going to hate me?
I know love and I know goodbyes
The days of saying those phrases with a smile are gone
I wonder if youll understand my cold heart a little
My worthless self, who let you go before he could get hurt
Meet someone better than me and be happy
