

NRG, To Die For

Will I be able to meet someone new someday
And love again
Loving someone who is that you and laughing together
Will that bury us and make me forget us
Erasing you and then erasing you again
As I keep trying it hurts and hurts a lot
I feel like Im going to go crazy
As my tears look at you
Even though I wipe away and wipe away again
I only throw up sighs
Anxious that my heart might remember you
Your walk as you turn around
Ill just send you like that
Trying to hold you and hold you again
As I keep trying it hurts and hurts a lot
I feel like Im going to go crazy
As my tears look at you
Even though I wipe away and wipe away again
I only throw up sighs
Anxious that my heart might remember you
Your walk as you turn around
Ill just send you like that
Although the job of sending you isnt that easy
As time passes and passes more
So it doesnt linger in my heart
Im sorry and sorry again for being a cowardly man
To die and to die for again
The memories of loving you
Anxious that my heart might remember you
Your walk as you turn around, Ill just send you like that
Ill just send you like that
