

NTO, Loving You Like Always (ft. Tricky)

We'll always walk those hallways
Take a break, like four days
It's funny how the love dies
I'm loving you like always
You're flying through my left side
I'm slowly diving underground
She's fast asleep, don't make a sound
It's funny how the love dies

Feels like I'm a stone, I never cry, coming like I was
Feels like I'm a stone, I never cry, coming like I was
Feels like I'm a stone, I never cry, coming like I was
Feels like I'm a stone, I never cry, coming like I was

You're the one I run to Fall apart, I undo
Let's start again like some do
And I feel like I wanna go home
What you doing Sunday?
Maybe we can run away
Hide away 'til Monday
Are you gonna call me?
Wanna go home

Feels like I'm a stone, I never cry, coming like I was
Feels like I'm a stone, I never cry, coming like I was
Feels like I'm a stone, I never cry, coming like I was
Feels like I'm a stone, I never cry, coming like I was

I wanna go home
