Number Nine, Cold Embracing

I had someone to hold me tight. I was high then she left me low. Im walking lonely streets in Winter. Im lost in memories. That I cant hide away. Youre gone, my soul will freeze. Is this the price I pay...? Cold Embracing, still amazing. My everlasting love... Do you hear the calls Im sending out? Cold EmbI see you walking next to me. There was magic in your eyes. The crowd would stare and then we broadle lost in memories. Just on my mind. Aint there a chance for me. To make it up in time...? Cold Embracing, .....
