

Number One Gun, Invest In You

If this conversations going nowhere
Just give it more time to break through
Amazingly you bring to me new life

Right now,
I know
That it never would have hurt to be here
Right now I invest in you and me
And it never would have hurt to be here

When the confusion comes from nowhere
I know it's not you
I'll break through
Amazingly you promise me new life

I'll break down eventually, and run into you
