

Number1hater, Over You

So it took a couple days it took a couple weeks
It took a little while and we still don't speak
IT took a lot of pain it took a lot of nerve . It Took a lot of things
I didn't deserve
So you tell me that you love me and you need me here
That your always gonna want me so have no fear that I'm Falling in a circle that I can't get out only lies and deceit come out of your mouth

(Chorus) I'm finally Over you
Free to do What I wanna Do
IM finally over this I loved you but you're a bitch
IM final on my own
I got two tattoos and a microphone
IM finally over this I loved you but you're a bitch

I reminisce all the things you said All the lies That she always fed
Take a look at things and how they change
You think your pretty but your really the same
And all your friends there ugly 2
There just as shallow and made up as you .
I don't feel like I'm in that crowd so pack your things and move out

(Chorus)
I'm finally Over you
Free to do What I wanna Do
IM finally over this I loved you but you're a bitch
IM final on my own
I got two tattoos and a microphone
IM finally over this I loved you but you're a bitch

baby what do u say its been 13 days since you drove away
Lately It's all good
I found a new girl In the neighbor hood
baby what do u say its been 13 days since you drove away
Lately It's all good
I found a new girl In the neighbor hood

To bad this is how we part
You'll always have a piece of my heart
To bad this is how it ends
Go get yourself a new boyfriend
To bad this how we part. You'll Always have a piece of my heart
