

Numic, Control

I'll show in time
this unbearable mind
I'll show the lie
that fell in your mind
you blindly fall in my surface you crave this love but my intent's not to love you

(chorus) forgive me when I have control cause I have control and give me all of you and more cause I want more

I'll show in time
this unbearable mind
I'll show the lie
that fell in your mind
I'll find my faults
turn them to you
I'll try to run but you return don't I know you

(chorus)
go on you've made it I can't believe you're coming back again this time you'll take it like once before this time you're mine again you'll bind your trust in my lust I left your love

with all the rest that I've known too

(chorus)
