

Numic, I'm Becoming

Consumed uninspired
I will lose I may die here
Into into this place I'll hide
Confused for now Ill lay here
When, when will this end?
When can I mend
All this space inside

SMILES - won't change this taste
It's still the only way
that I can ever let go
This is the end now
Onlything that matters is
TIME - can change our place
In spite of all the things I hate
I never let go it begins again
Things I can not change I'm becoming

Abused by your desire
I refuse this any longer
I new there was a space inside
You couldn't bruise and now it's my turn to Shed this useless skin
That part of me is dead gone
I can't use it any more.

SMILES - won't change this taste
It's still the only way
that I can ever let go
This is the end now
Only thing that matters now is
TIME - can change our place
In spite of all the things I hate
I never let go it begins again

Is here the only home
I've blamed it all along so take it all
And leave me alone
just take it all and go away

SMILES - won't change this taste
It's still the only way
that I can ever let go
This is the end now
Onlything that matters is
TIME - can change our place
In spite of all the things I hate
I never let go it begins again
Things I can not change I'm becoming
