

Numic, Wake Up

So some might take this time to look between these lines there's no cause
Wake up now, won't easily succumb to reason, no convey you're safe so I don't have to wake up
Wait, you're certainly gonna find no feeling from me
the poison is you, taste, now it's the only way that I wake up, not fade the fuck out please sew my eyes shut

I kind of think that I should feel so sorry for all the things that I can't seem to see

No more talk it's fine.
You'll never see your crimes just ignore Wake up
now, I don't want to hold the mirror up, no the pictures framed and it's of you in your mud Pig-I've heard all your lies a thousand times they're stronger and they stink of hate and they're the only way that I wake up, not fade the fuck out
please sew my eyes shut

for all the things that I can't seem to see

The only thought in my head you've become a dead end every time that I try you're sleeping Wait for time to unveil this complicated situation that I've been bleeding in Wake the fuck up

please sew my eyes shut

for all the things that I can't seem to see
