

Nun Drunky, Wrong Again

You are everything for him
And he hopes to be everything for you
But you wanna see
Another girl, it's not COOL
It makes a psychologic problem
When he wants to be alone with you
But he always thinks
He is just going to LOSE

And now he understands
He does a lot of things
Which just make him WRONG AGAIN
And he don't want
You to go away with anyone else
Don't go away with anyone else

In the sky the sun speaks about it with the stars
The birds are flying down to see the butterflies
The moon is there too, speaks with the clouds
It's wonderful, but not very cool
Without you...
