

Nuno Bettencourt, Broken

In your eyes reflections of a man
Living lies as truthful as he can
Senses turn deaf, dumb and blind
What you find what you hear
What you say and what you're seeing

Who's gonna break the news
Who's gonna tie the noose
Cause we're broken and we can't be fixed
Who's gonna take the fall
Who's gonna risk it all
Cause we're broken and we can't be fixed
Broken way beyond repair

Curtain call the show it must go on
My second act the chemistry is wrong
Two big stars fighting for applause
And the cause of all monologues
A baby

What's your secret
And is it about me

In your eyes reflections of a man
Living lies as truthful as he can
I'm blind, deaf, dumb and blind
