

Nuno Bettencourt, Got To Have You

No one home, no need to cry
I've got me myself and I
What I need truly was a lie
I just need me myself and I

Sudden walk into my life
Now I've got to have you
Oh, so heavenly your eyes
Now I've got to

Got to have you
Got to have you
Got to have you
Got to have you

Step right up, play the game
Step right up and don't be shamed
Life is full, you might win a prize
Step right up and close your eyes

An angel breathing thoughtful breath
Now I've got to have you
An angel curing me of death
Now I've got to

Got to have you
Got to have you
Got to have you
Got to have you

Sudden walk into my life
Now I've got to have you
Oh, so heavenly your eyes
Now I've got to

Got to have you
Got to have you
Got to have you
Got to have you

La, la, la
La, la, la
La, la, la
La, la, la, la
