

Nuno Bettencourt, I Wonder

Looks like my mother is crying
I wonder if she's scared
Or is she dreaming of Heaven
A life without a care

Is that what she wants?
Or is she really scared of death
"(I wonder what she's thinking)"

What if there is no Heaven?
What if there is no reason?
What if there is no Heaven?
No real angels there to gather me

Looks like my father is lonely
I wonder how he feels
About my mother who's only
Memories rain in years

It's never too late
Or would he rather fade away
"(I wonder what he's thinking)"

What if there is no Heaven?
What if there is no reason?
What if there is no Heaven?
No real angels there to gather me

What if there is no Heaven?
What if there is no reason?
What if there is no Heaven?
No real angels there to gather me
