

Nuno Bettencourt, Replay

It's no fun
Put down your gun
That wasn't how the west was won

No one to blame
Try to keep it sane
Go and recover from your pain

And you see it over and over
In replay it's never easy to know
That it's all been done

Shattered by shock
Nuclear glare
Frozen in fear you're on the air
Bid them goodnight
And a pleasant day
This now concludes your broadcast

Near death experience
It's not your fault
Just be the one in all
Whose fault dissolves

In replay
It just happens over and over
