

O.C. Supertones, Preseverance Of The Saints

Hey!

Let me drown in an ocean of devotion
Let my joy be in service and love my emotion
Let me be closer than your right hand
Tighter than your left hand and let me be a Godly man
Till the day I die, Till the fire's just smoke
I will go for broke till my last word's spoke
If I limp then I will run with a limp
I'll win some and lose some, but I'll make my attempt

Last breath before the candle flickers out
I will speak the name of Jesus

I will keep fighting to the knockout, even if I'm knocked out
Hitting hard, I'm hittin' for the belt
My soul will keep going till my body buckles
I will drop my bloody knuckles
Carry us to Heaven by the truckfuls
I will be as stubborn as a pitbull
Neutral as a nazi, resolute like Ghandi
I will keep preaching till I'm took out
Till I'm in Heaven en route
No sell out

Last breath before the candle flickers out
I will speak the name of Jesus
Last breath before the candle flickers out
I will speak the name of Jesus
Last breath before the candle flickers out
I will speak the name of Jesus
Last breath before the candle flickers out
I will speak the name of Jesus
