

O-Town, All She Wrote

All She Wrote

Thats all she wrote
no reason why
to read between the lines when you walked out the door I realized in my heart it was all your baby
thats all she wrote
read between the lines
goodbye.. thats all she wrote...

no reason why
when you walked out the door I
yours baby
thats all she wrote
read between the lines
