

OAG, Goddess

I wanna go inside my bedroom wish to sleep tight tonight cause I don't wanna have any trouble with anyone especially God I wish you could be here now.

Well explain to me why you always have to go away today Complaining is the last thing that I wanna hear from you.

I wish I could understand you
so well, deep inside and I hope you will too(do) you will true.
I wish we could understand each other,
I wish we could understand each other
so deep inside.

Im not asking you to believe me or not You're free to decide and now it's up to you to decide to be or not to be my, my girl I wish you could read my lips.

I'm not the sun or king who can give you everything that you want now it's up to us to make this life for a better living Well my, my girl.

I wish I could understand you
so well, deep inside
and I hope you will do(too) you will true
I wish we could understand each other,
I wish we could understand each other
so deep inside.

Deep in side and I hope you will do, you will true, too I wish I could understand you so well deep inside and I hope you will too you will do
I wish we could understand each other,
I wish we could understand each other...
My, my, my God.
