

Oblivion Dust, Black Tongue

The lights that shine in your eyes
Just keep me shadowed, underneath and scared
I'm never gonna fight
Image, open wound, synthetic stain
Let you hate me if you open my eyes
Make me unafraid

Tell me that it's all wrong
World view
Crucifix dysfunction
Yeah it's all wrong
World view
Crucifix dysfunction

So vulnerable
Compatible
So vulnerable
In love with my own lie

So keep descending
Make it never ending
Advertise a suicide that anyone can try
But we're never gonna die
I might kiss your face and bite your tongue
But you will never feel a thing
'Cause your world is so perfectly unclean

Yeah it's all wrong
World view
Crucifix dysfunction
Don't sleep, don't think
Don't breathe, don't love
I'm trying to be different
Yeah it's all wrong
World view
Crucifix dysfunction
Don't sleep, don't think
Don't breathe, don't love
I'm trying to be different

Light bulbs in my mouth complete me

Black tongue

Yeah it's all wrong
World view
Crucifix dysfunction
Don't sleep, don't think
Don't breathe, don't love
I'm trying to be different
Yeah it's all wrong
World view
Crucifix dysfunction

Light bulbs in my mouth complete me

You will never feel a thing
