

Oblivion Dust, S.O.S.

In Album: RADIO SONGS ~ Best of Oblivion Dust

These are words that you say to me
You're confused and you're so empty

Everyday you're part of me
Never fading out of me

And I'm so bored again
Don't listen to a word I say
Is it this sugar taste in the mind I've wasted that's left me so cold?
These fake eyes wake up in xerox makeup to an image of you

Everyday you're part of me
Never fading out of me

These are words that you say to me
You're confused and you're so empty
All this life that you live for me
You're confused and you're so empty

It's the same old memory
Never fading out of me
Everyday you're part of me
As you stay to comfort
Comfort me...
