

Obtained Enslavement, Millenium Beast (Awaiting

Drowned in snow
they lie in mountains
Reaching heaven high
A creature of war
can be seen from afar Nervously his beast approach the jaw of stone He places his feet upon the frozen ground A wind of evil sweeps him by He who holds the flame, who stands up straight Upon thee I will lay my blasphemy
You can not even reach me, where I sit on my throne so high Fall to your knees and praise me or die Almighty one,
hear my prayer in ancient tongue
My heart is growing heavy, black as death and cold Ornaments hacked in ice Above me they hang,
to remind me of elder beliefs Almighty one,
what I'm seeking is yours to give The wisdom that is hidden in what is hanging high Ornaments carved in stone Beneath me they lie, the future of your tribe depends upon your fate
Drowned in snow
they lie in mountains
Reaching heaven high
A creature of war
