

Obtained Enslavement, Stepping Over Angels

Carnal lust dwells in the mind of the angel who sits at his feet of his master And God - heaven alone can no longer please him, after glimpse of the race this is walking below
The pleasures of flesh and the glory of war has left scars in the mind of the one at God's feet In visions of horror
he pictures himself, as he steps over angels and enter God's seat Satisfaction is now on the face of the one who no longer is by the feet of his god But sits high on his throne of gold The so-called king who came forth from the east, will he be worthy for the beast?
Or will they throw him to the dogs for them to have feast?

[Repeat all]

The one who came forth from the east was not worthy for the beast