

Obtained Enslavement, The Seven Witches...

(Music: Heks/Words: Dden)

For the Sabbath of the seven witches
And their dance for the unholy arrival
As the warlord appears in crystal views
No eyes shall ever see again.
There are nights and there will be but nights
For endless are these steps
Shadows from a thousand years back
Behold... the powers of the moon
For this moment of forever
Will be in those souls
Naked is she
For the gate are but purity
And the air shall stand red
Coloured by the humble creatures of god
Awake the demons
For the time is theirs
Await the sun to turn black as it once was written
Hark... the beasts of the night
Beware of the coming
Eyes die, but still there are visions
For this is not human flesh
Nor human souls
Forever is this moment
Blasphemer of the forbidden night
Take what's yours
