

Ocean Colour Scene, She's Been Writing

Village Girl ain't it just the way
Grows her hair long and paints her face
Nobody calls her anyway
It's a shame

Here we go she knows it all
Writes it all down to tell us all
Nobody hears her at all
Anymore

She's been writing, she's been writing
She's been, ah she's been writing

At the fighting bar she knows the law
Ah she'll just get up and sock you on the jaw
After all she's been in love before
Nevermore

She's been writing, she's been writing
She's been, ah she's been writing

Between the stages and the sad refrains you know she sings
I'm just a dreamer scheming for the show
Between the pages I can hardly stand the pain
The changes bought to you before you had to go

Sandy Girl ain't it just the way
Grows her hair long and makes mistakes
Nobody calls her anyway
Nevermore

She's been writing, she's been writing
She's been, ah she's been writing
She's been writing, she's been writing
She's been, ah she's been writing

All the sad refrains you know
She sings them solo
